

BOY STRIPPED AND THROWN AMONG GIRLS

High School Hazers Terrify Room Full of Young Ladies.

VICTIM FIRST PAINTED.

Jersey City Board of Education Has Ordered a Full Investigation.

Just because a member of the Delphian Society told a graduate and a graduate told her father, and her father, thinking it a good joke, told it at the club to a lot of his friends, the High School Committee of the Board of Education of Jersey City has called a meeting for Thursday night to find out why young Thomas O'Neill, undergoing hazing at the hands of the Forensic Society, was bound, blindfolded, stripped to the waist, tattooed with iodine, and in that fix shoved into a room full of girls.

It all happened last Friday afternoon, but the facts of it have just leaked out. The Forensic Society has been in existence for thirty years in the Jersey City High School. Every boy student aspires to belong to it, notwithstanding the frequent roughness of the initiations. Tommy O'Neill, sixteen years old, was no exception. He was scared but jubilant when he presented himself as a candidate for the rites last Friday afternoon after study hours at the door of the chemistry room on the second floor of the High School building, where the society is permitted to meet. In a room just below the Delphian Society, composed of girls of the High School, was having its weekly session, with chocolate and ice cream as side issues.

The Forensic lost no time with O'Neill. They made him take off his shoes. Then they stripped him to his waist, fastened his wrists behind his back with straps and proceeded to paint dragons and horned horses on his back and breast with a brush dipped in iodine. His face they decorated with rings and dots of the indelible brown drug.

It occurred to one of the members to lower the novice's shoes out of the window by a string. When the dangling shoes rattled against the window of the room below, the girls of the Delphian Society raised the alarm and hurried to the door. They thought it was all part of a joke. And it was.

The boys above had a new idea. They blindfolded O'Neill and led him down stairs to the door of the Delphian So-cety's meeting-place. "Knock here and you'll get your shoes back," said the chief hater. But O'Neill, with his hands lashed together behind him, couldn't knock very hard. Three of the boys ran against the door with all their might, burst it off its hinges and pushed the blindfolded, handcuffed victim, his face like an Easter egg and his body like Chinese wall-paper, into the midst of the startled party of girls.

While O'Neill stood in the door trying to figure out what had happened the girls scattered. Some, with cheeks aflame, spun past the glaring boy students at the door and ran through the corridors.

That is why the High School Committee of the Board of Education of Jersey City is going to hear Superintendent of Schools Henry L. Snyder, and Prof. James Hopkins, principal of the High School, upon Thursday night. Mr. Hopkins is said to want to suspend every member of the Forensic Society, but Mr. Snyder is inclined to look on the prank with a more lenient eye. The members of the investigation are William A. Lewis, chairman; Frederick DeFenbach and L. P. Lyons.
